Les Femmes Chosen by Kenyon Fraternity

This year Les Femmes were chosen by the Executive Committee of the Beta Alpha Chapter of the Beta Theta Pi Fraternity at Kenyon College. The committee members remarked on the beauty of all the contestants and expressed pleasure at the opportunity of making the selection, wishing luck to students and faculty, and congratulations to the four winners.

The Class of 1968 carried out the usual senior calendar with unusual enthusiasm and inventiveness. Its vast resource of originality was evident in the manner in which Homecoming was presented this year. Tradition was abandoned. The queen's throne was placed far and above to the left of the stage, instead of in the center. The green and blue decorations transformed the auditorium into a sea of mist. Homecoming 1967 was a tribute to all who were involved.

The job of collecting dues was next in line for the seniors. Later graduation announcement forms were voted on and an assembly was held at which time the students placed their orders.

The Senior Class Play was a major theatrical success of the year. Students were given an opportunity to display their dramatic talents. The play was well-accepted by a large response.

Students who had shown outstanding academic standing throughout high school were honored at the Senior Banquet and at Class Day. Prom night lent a romantic atmosphere to the graduation exercises, while Baccalaureate added a time for serious reflection. The years of hard work were symbolized on the day of achievement, Commencement.

Student Council

Many activities and projects were brought about through the efforts of the Student Council this year. Among the various projects were the filling of Christmas baskets for the needy (right), the Talent Show, and the Student Council sponsored receptions for Malabar alumni and Mr. Marquette. The annual Cardinal Conference Exchange was held in the spring and an inner-club council was formed. Students and the Council also benefited from the sale of books at the Student Council Book Store (below). Above is shown the Student Council Cabinet.

Accipiter

This year the Malabar Accipiter grew in size as well as quality with the publication of sixteen issues. Those most responsible for this year's issues of the Accipiter were co-editors John Talaba and Vicki Anderson (right). Advising the Accipiter editorial staff was Mrs. Rich (above).

They Gained Experience In Government

Chosen to represent Malabar at the Girls' State Convention last summer was Vicki Anderson. The annual convention was held at Columbus, Ohio. Twelve-hundred girls from all parts of the state were in attendance.

At left, Vicki relates her Girls' State experiences to alternate candidate Pat Daugherty and other interested students. While at Girls' State Vicki was the Federalist candidate for the office of State Attorney General.

The convention was held from June seventeenth through the twenty-fourth.

Mark Smith and Craig D'Ooge were among thirteen hundred boys who participated in Boys' State at Ohio University in Athens, Ohio during the period lasting from June 9 through June 16, 1967.

The aim of the annual program is essentially instructive. The boys learned about state elections by participating in mock elections.

Each boy was a member of a city of about fifty-five boys. They were expected to pay taxes, keep a deed on their property, and keep books much as public officials must.

Mark ran for Secretary of State and was appointed the Director of Industrial Relations. Craig ran for and won the Senatorship of his city.

Exchange Students Enjoyed Trips Abroad

Omar Valdimarsson, foreign exchange student from Iceland, was able to come to Malabar through the International Christian Youth Exchange (ICYE). Mark Smith, Student Council President, was Omar's brother in the United States.

Residing with Rick Miller, Senior Class Vice President, was Do Quang Toa from South Viet Nam. Do Quang Toa came to Malabar through the efforts of the American Field Service (AFS). His home is in Bien-Wai, South Viet Nam.

This past summer Grey Gundaker, Senior at Malabar this year, spent two months in Rufford Abbey, England. She was one of the 1800 American students chosen by the A.F.S. to go abroad and was sponsored by A.F.S. chapters.

The Accipiter Business Staff distributed the newspaper to homerooms every time the publication came out. The business staff was under the direction of Mr. Richey, Malabar mathematics teacher. The staff also kept the financial records during the year.

Mr. Richey (below) is seen conversing with the co-managers of the business staff.

They Made Publications Possible

Mystery Devastated Viewers

Higgins, Barb Zaugg, Steve Dutton. Absent are Sharman Holmes and Phil Kampf.

"The door opens and the unexpected guest walks in," said Janet Dight and Barb Zaugg as the double-cast leads of the Senior Class play, The Unexpected Guest, given March 15 and 16, 1968.

Jack Higgins, the male lead, was supported by cast members Steve Dutton, Joe Keetle, Gary Orlow, Phil Kampf, Rick Miller, and Brant Dinkin.

The three female parts were double-cast with Sharman Holmes and Carol Zivkov, and Nancy Tawse and Sandy Heasley sharing roles.

The Unexpected Guest, written by Agatha Christie, is a dramatic mystery concerning the murder of the mentally deranged head of the house. Each member of the household is suspected until it is found out in the last lines that a stranger, whose child he had run over, was the culprit.

"Autumn Antics"

On December 1, the curtains opened for the first annual Malabar Talent Show, "Autumn Antics." The production was sponsored by the Malabar Student Council and directed by Mike Merritt with the assistance of co-director Mike Long. There were twenty-three acts incorporated into the talent show including solos (above), skits (left), and various dances. The entire cast returned to the stage at the end of the show for the finale (above).

"You Can't Take It With You"

Sally Bowen, Bob Bogantz, Alan Trbovich, Kevin Boyle, Greg Woerth, Mary Burns, Nancy Mangan.

Mr. Gerrell, director, watched intensely as Juniors preformed.

Hank Hartstein, Steve Carpenter, and George Finefrock rehearsed diligently.

Malabar Visited Big Ralph

On December 14, fifty Malabar students (right) journeyed to Cleveland to make an appearance on "The Big Ralph Show." A week prior to the appearance a panel of judges (below) selected four dancers: Mike Merritt with Jean Petty and Dan Gagich with Peggy Wenger, to appear. Pictured above are Dan and Peggy with the show's host, Jay Lawrence. Mark Smith acted as spokesman for Malabar.

Drama Projects Thrilled Audiences

Students Compared Policies

First Row: Lonnie Holmes, Tobi Kipp, Linda Roberts, Marge McNaul, Jeanie Worely, Terri Toms. Second Row: Debby Warndorf, Barb Ferris.

Third Row: Pam Shrader, Linda Hosack, Becky Thoman, Joel Dovenbarger, Jan Dight, Jody Lantz, Steve Keyser.

They Set The Stage

Sports

Malabar Tied Ontario In Final Game

The 1967 edition of the Falcon Football Team had a successful year, ending with a 2-7-1 record. The offense was versatile, able to gain yards in the air, as displayed by Steve Dutton (left) or ground yards out, as shown by Jim Nixon (below right). At times the offense was stopped as Steve Hahn was brought to the ground by the Ashland defense (below).

Throughout the year the team was faced with the problem of not being effective in both halves. Many times the players took the lead in the first half only to lose in the second half.

Football

Homecoming

Homecoming Court members enjoyed a quick snow-ball fight between classes.

Queen and Her Court Follow Dreams

This year's Homecoming theme was interpreted in shades of blue and green. Court members were surrounded by a mist of translucent veils and Queen Ann Ludwig reigned from a throne of white laced metal. She wore a gown of white chiffon and carried long-stemmed yellow roses. The green dresses of Nancy Tawse (opposite middle) and Peggy Wenger (opposite right) complimented the blue formals worn by Karen Austin (opposite left) and Irene Prinz (left).

After the crowning of Queen Ann by 1966 queen, Jane Ferris, the Ashland-Malabar game football was presented by Jim Nixon. Mr. Robert E. Glass, Superintendent of Schools, addressed the student body.

The decorations committee was headed by Peggy Pifer who is shown on the opposite page recovering from hard work.

Football

One of the most disappointing games of the year was against Madison. The Rams took an early lead and the Falcons were unable to catch up.

Spirit at the games this year was at a new high. Typically, Vicki Anderson (left) displayed the spirit that backed the team throughout the year.

After a tough season the team members enjoyed a banquet (below right).

Falcons Defeated By Madison Rams

Falcons Flew Over Clearfork Colts

The Clearfork game was one of the few games in which the team played consistently well in both halves. The offense rolled up touchdowns, while the defense was holding the Colts to only six points. When the final gun sounded, the Falcons had won the game, 18-6.

The rushing attack this year was lead by Joe Kettle (below left) and Jim Nixon (right). Many times throughout the year this combination came up with the important first down.

The Falcons beat New Philly for their only Conference victory this year.

Football

Harriers Completed A Successful Year

This year's Cross Country Team completed a successful season. The final record in dual meets was 3-2. Rick Miller, along with Bob Currens, paced this year's team. Rick finished third in the Cardinal Conference Meet at Ashland.

Rick Miller (left) pins on his assigned number. Later in the afternoon Mike Hall sprinted into the chute during the Cardinal Conference meet.

Besides the Cardinal Conference meet the team also participated in the Mansfield Invitational and the District meet. Rick Miller was the only Falcon to qualify for the Regional meet.

Tennis Team is Victorious

Led by Senior Fred Brubach the Falcon Tennis Team was looking forward to another good season. Brubach, last year's district winner, was supported by Senior Mark Smith and Sophomore Tom Heichel. Remaining positions on Varsity were up for grabs throughout the season. The Falcons, forced inside by the weather, played their first match against Madison on April 1st. A long, hard season followed.

Falcons Were Much Improved

Coached by Lewis Petit and assistant coach Lloyd Buck, the 1968 edition of the Falcon Baseball team had hopes for a successful year.

Comprised mostly of underclassmen, the team hoped to improve its record of last year.

The team played many games throughout the year. Their hopes were high for a Cardinal Conference championship.

Many sophomores tried out for the team and interest was at an all time high.

The first game of the 27 game schedule was against the Crestview Cougars.

Baseball

Golfers Had Successful Season

The Malabar Falcon golf team fought to another successful season. With a veteran team, the Falcons looked forward to the Cardinal Conference meet, the District meet, and hopefully the State tournament. The team was paced by senior Steve Keyser, the winner of the district last year. Rounding out the team were seniors Greg Hamilton, John Talaba, and Joe Keetle, and junior Dave Goldman.

Wrestling Squad Sought Members

This year's wrestling team, under the direction of Coach Wrobbel, was much improved. The team rallied against obstacles. In spite of being forced to forfeit all the matches in the 103 pound weight class, the team won many of its matches.

The wrestlers were paced by Les Revennaugh who had a 9-1 mark at the end of the season. He won the sectional meet in his weight class qualifying for the district meet.

The other wrestlers made improvements over last year. Jeff Turley was one of the outstanding juniors, ending the season with an 8-2 mark. With continued improvement the team should be tough next year.

First Row: Bill Oliver, Don Synder, Duane Rowland, Jeff Turley, Gary Burdge. Second Row: Barry Kirkwood, Rex Gleisinger, Dave Hickie, Bob

Falcons Posted Victory Over Madison

This year's Falcons topped previous team records in victories. Their seventh victory, the one that set the record, came against the Shelby Whippets. The victory over Shelby evened the season record at 7-7. Following a loss to Ashland, the team once again evened its record at 8-8 with a win over Clearfork.

This year, for the first time in two years, the team beat Madison.

Basketball

Falcons Romped Over Minutemen

Probably the most exciting and inspiring game of the year was against Lexington. The Lexington five jumped off to an early lead that lasted through the first quarter. From that time on, though, the game was all Malabar's, and when the final buzzer sounded, the Falcons had won 70-50.

Before this year, pride and fight seemed to mean little to the basketball team. This year the team began to fight and the fighting paid off. After the first few games of the year, the team was in first place in the conference. This will-to-win gave the team a reputation of being the toughest in Malabar history.

Basketball

Basketball Team Was Best In History

This year's record, 9-10, was the best in the school's history. Most of the victories this year were non-conference games. Playing outside the conference this year, the team ran up a 6-0 record. Their final record in the conference was 3-9.

The varsity squad (left) was lead by Mark Smith, who had 37 points in the tournament game.

Lettermen (below) who saw final action were seniors Joe Keetle, Mark Smith, Steve Dutton, and Phil Wilging.

Swimming

Led by Senior Captain Craig D'Ooge, the Malabar Falcon swimmers fought to another successful season. The swimmers, although startled by early setbacks, got back on the winning trail in preparation for the Malabar Relays and State meets. They climaxed their early season with a stunning victory over Wooster, 64-31. In the Wooster meet, Craig D'Ooge led the Falcons while breaking two Malabar pool records, in the 400 yard freestyle with a 4:24.4 and in the 200 yard freestyle with a 1:58.5 timing. Also in the meet Jeff Horvath made his best time in the 100 yard breaststroke with a 1:05.4 time. Jeff Distl can be seen (lower right) diving to victory. Jim Wagner and Ric Goodall (upper left) are caught discussing their recent victory. Ric Goodall (upper right) is preparing for the start of a race, and Mike Lerro (lower left) is beginning a winning effort.

Swimmers Swam Past Ashland

Swimming

Although it was somewhat of a disappointing season for the swimmers, there was a promise for the future. Seniors Craig D'Ooge, Tom Garber, Vic Kuhn, Mike Murray and Jim Wagner paced the team. The juniors and sophomores also fared well. Sophomore Jeff Horvath had one of the top ten times in the state in the 100 yard breaststroke event. Junior Mike Lerro's entry in the butterfly also anticipated the future. Also sophomore Jeff Distl and junior Don Faugl did well diving. They both landed many first places in diving competition. Coach Bartholow (middle left) is seen yelling encouragement to his team.

D'Ooge Sets Record Against Wooster

Track

Beginning early in the spring the Falcon track team, coached by Joe Romano and Gordon Shipley, was out in the cold weather hoping to get in shape for a successful season. The goal of the trackmen was to be in top shape for the Mansfield Relays at Mehock Field, April 11 and 12. With snow still on the ground the distance runners were outside running, showing how determined they were to raise the Track team's record of a year ago. Although seniors prevailed in the hopes for a winning season, there was also a good crop of juniors and sophomores out for the team. Veterans included seniors Gale Armstrong, Paul Gilbert, Dick King, Walt Harris, Walt Merrill, Rick Miller, Jim Nixon, and Scott Shiplet. Coach Romano looked for a winning season with these senior athletes and nearly 25 other juniors and sophomores.

Members of the Malabar National Honor Society were selected for scholarship, leadership, citizenship, and character. The tutoring program and the Student Recognition Banquet were two of the many projects of this year. Officers were John Talaba, President; Linda Roberts, Secretary; Burt Preston, Vice President; and Mike Murray, Treasurer. Mr. Richard High advised NHS. Below left, Janet Dight, Dick King, and Vicki Anderson are shown practicing for the annual NHS ceremony.

Serious Research Led to Victories

Bob Atton, Alan Trbovich, Margaret Channell, Hank Hartstein, Gisela Medek, Mary Burns, Betsy Schneider, Lydia Boals, John Cook III, Kathy Finefrock.

Guiding the Debate Team through the year was adviser Mr. Ray Gerrell. Time and effort paid off for its members with the winning of numerous trophies and awards. Extemporaneous speeches, dramatic interpretations, and humorous declamations were also phases of the program. In the lower left, Ellen Goldman points out an important statement to Vicki Anderson and Sue Courtad.

Members Visited Elementary Schools

First Row: Debbie Simmons, Linda Hosack, Tammy Hammer. Second Row: Tina Duy, Tillie Lahm, Brooke Reed, Jane Beasore, Debbie Schmahl. Third Row: Pam Mott, Janet Swetlick, Karen McCullough, Sallie Popovec. Fourth

Future Teachers was joined by those Malabar students planning a career in education. The main purpose of the organization was to give its members practical experience in teaching by assisting teachers as aides, by having speakers, and by conducting a visitation program to area schools. The club was advised by Miss Margie Kauf and the officers were Sallie Popovec, President; Shellie Stratton, Vice President; Linda Hosack, Secretary; and Nancy Mangan, Treasurer.

AFS Promoted World-Wide Friendship

The goal of AFS was to promote a better understanding among the people of the world by sponsoring foreign exchange students. This year's student, upper right, was Do Quang Toa, from Viet Nam. Cathy Bowen (below right) is shown with her AFS bag full of items that the club sold. Officers were Kary Austin, President; Carol Mong, Chairman; Tobi Kipp, Treasurer; Cindy Morrow, Secretary; Jane Beasore, Chairman; and Mary Staninovski, Vice President. Mr. Howard Hatfield was the adviser.

Literary Magazine Was Prepared

Producing the Impetus, a literary magazine, was the principal goal of Quill and Scroll. The 1968 edition of Impetus was the fifth issue exhibiting the creative abilities of Malabar students. Much of the work included in this literary magazine was inspired by English and Art classroom activities. Impetus is a publication of which Malabar is understandably proud. Any person who was in the upper third of his class, who had an interest in Journalism, working either on the Talon or Accipiter, and who was recommended by his adviser or advisers was admitted to the organization. A formal initiation for the new members was held in February, followed by a social hour. Mrs. Maxine Rich, Mr. Robert Seibert, and Mr. William Hailey advised the club.

German Atmosphere Livened Party

First Row: Kelly Long, Chely Fockler, Kris Hoffman, Marlene Baloy, Tobi Kipp, Kathy Seibert. Second Row: Bill Quicksall, Sharon Reece, Charlene Haverfield, Peg Henson, Melanie Alacca. Third Row: Chris Crittenden, Barb Walls, Barb Long, Mary Lou Kanz, Mike Lerro. Fourth Row: Gary Orlow, Chris Callen, Randy Madson, Ken Miller, Mr. Nixon.

The main purpose of German Club was to further the knowledge of all Malabar students interested in Germany. Emphasis this year was placed on customs, language, and culture. The members combined learning with fun in the plans for the annual Christmas party and spring picnic. Advising the group was Mr. Richard Nixon and officers were Ken Miller, President; Steve Carpenter, Vice President; Charlene Haverfield, Secretary; and Chris Callen, Treasurer.

Old Language Brought to Life

Artists Displayed Creative Ability

First Row: Wendy Beugger, Pam Gurik, Sharon McLaughlin, Tilly Lahm, Nancy Mangan, Mary Staninowski. Second Row: Barb Clifford, Marlene

Senser, Karen McCullough, Valerie Brooks. Third Row: Ron Seilert, Tom Ickert, Ron Sidwell, David Rice, Dana Lewis, Mr. Frank Daniell.

The goal of this year's Art club was to promote a better understanding and presentation of art in the school. The club planned to design and sell stationery and Malabar penants. The club also enriched its knowledge of art by inviting speakers to the meetings. Mr. Frank Daniell was the adviser and the officers were Tilly Lahm, Treasurer; Barb Clifford, Vice President; Dana Lewis, Historian; Nancy Mangan, Secretary; and Janet Swetlick, President who was absent from the officer's picture.

Pep Assemblies Boosted Spirit

By sponsoring a bonfire at Mehock Field the Pep Club was able to spark spirit before the Madison game. Members boosted enthusiasm with skits and Pep assemblies throughout the year. Dick King and Barb Denig are shown in the upper right hanging a banner for a game. Elected as officers by the student body were Steve Keyser, President; Barb Denig, Vice President; Irene Prinz, Treasurer; and Patti Collins, Secretary. Miss Dolores Billhardt advised the club.

Key Club's projects were aimed toward community service. New members were chosen with special emphasis on character, citizenship, and leadership. This year's activities included the daily raising and lowering of the school flag, setting the bulletin board, and helping the Salvation Army at Christmas time. Officers were Mark Smith, President; Steve Keyser, Vice President; Marshall Beard, Treasurer; Mike Murray, Secretary; with Mr. Robert Cales as this year's adviser.

Businessmen Hosted Junior Rotarians

The Junior Rotarians had an opportunity to meet many distinguished businessmen of the Mansfield area this year. The boys attended at various times the Rotary luncheons held at the Leland Hotel. At the right, Burt Preston and John Talaba return from one such luncheon.

Slopes Attracted Malabar Students

Ski Club was the Malabar organization which greatly appealed to those students who enjoyed that winter sport. The meetings were held in various member's homes throughout the year. The officers elected by the club were Burt Preston, President; Nancy DeKlyn, Treasurer; Reid Black, Vice President; and Melinda Douglass, Secretary. The club planned to take a weekend skiing trip to resort Blue Knob in Pennsylvania.

Inquisitive Minds Explored Science

The science club was formed with the purpose of increasing the scientific knowledge of any interested students. The programs were intended to provide greatly varied activity and study in many areas of scientific interest. Students participated in those projects they found appealing and were not obligated to assist in all. Officers this year were Marc Schiler, President; Ken Miller, Vice President; Nancy Gfeller, Secretary; and John Steidley, Treasurer.

Members of the Malabar Red Cross received an excellent opportunity to help others in Richland County and in the world. Part of this undertaking included the Mr. Football Contest, the preparation of Red Cross yearbooks, and the Christmas party given for several selected children of the area. Mrs. Mary Shaw and Mr. Frank Daniell were the advisers who worked with the group and with officers as shown in group picture, first row.

A New Club Appeared At Malabar

Campus Life, a new club at Malabar this year, was founded by the Youth for Christ program. It sponsored such activities as an interschool Halloween party, "Operation Nightmare." John Freer and Eric Orewiler, above, plan another social activity, the "Wild Goose Chase," which was held this past year. The Campus Life club also featured a Bible Study program.

Achievement Fair Highlighted Year

Junior Achievement realized its goal of providing practical experience in the preparing, advertising, and selling of a chosen product. The basic project of the organization was the annual Trade Fair held during J.A. week, February fourth through tenth. Sharon Carver (above) represents her company at the Fair. Tom Ickert uses the house-to-house method of selling his product.

First Row: Charles Weaver, Marc Caldwell, Delueter Paige, Dwana Larson, Audree Ferrell, Keitha Thompson. Second Row: Stanley Mabins, Alton Davison, James Caldwell, Dorothy Scott, Wallace Windham, Terry Davis, Sandra Dulin. Third Row: James Todd, Mary Davis, Debby Hanna, Susan Hartsel, Sharon Carver, Bonnie McLaughlin, Marian Stevenson. Fourth Row: Jean Petty, Carla Majors, Jim Beat, Tom Ickert, Kimm Hannan.

The sophomore year of all Y-Teens is a year of work and fun. Lonnie Holmes, President; Debbie Dutton, Treasurer; Sarah Wentz, Vice President; Barb Stockwell and Lee Williams, I.C.C.; Chely Fockler, Secretary; and Nikki Gentile, Parliamentarian; led the club through a successful year. Its big project was selling Malabar nightshirts, as is displayed by Melanie Alacca, Chris Hoffman, and Mary Lou Kanz. The money was used for various service and social projects. Advisers were Miss Helen Marshall and Miss Sue Hite.

First Year Was a Success

The group organized early, established goals, and executed them effectively. Success was not surprising for the 1968 Sophomore Hi-Y. Spirit was high under the competent leadership of Steve Buckalew, President; Ric Goodall, Chaplain; Chris Crittenden, Vice President; Mark Suman, Treasurer; and Randy Derror, Secretary.

Juniors Marched For ALSAC

During the past year members of the Junior Hi-Y successfully completed various projects. To make money T.V. Guide subscriptions were sold. Sales of this project were boosted when a race with the Junior Y-Teens was staged. Dave Steen, John Ashbaugh, and Dave Roberts, left, gave each other their support during the projects. Officers were Ed Beer, President; Steve Carpenter, Vice President; John Steidley, Secretary; Steve Block, Treasurer; and Bob Bogantz, Chaplain.

Candle Sale Launched Y-Teen Trip

First Row: Valerie Brooks, Karen Austin, Linda Roberts, Peggy Pifer, Janet Dight, Pam Sowers. Second Row: Jane Beasore, Barb Denig, Tina Duy, Diane Bush, Stephanie Stephan, Nancy Echenrode. Third Row: Joanne Finefrock, Molly Stull, Linda Hosack, Brenda Rabel, Karen McCullough.

The main goal for the Senior Y-Teens was to expand and develop personality and character. The club extended its goals to serving the surrounding community. One means of doing this was by holding a Christmas party for a group of underprivileged children of the area. The members also planned for a trip to be taken during Easter vacation. The officers of Malabar are shown above: Janet Dight, Parliamentarian; Kary Austin, I.C.C.; and Linda Roberts, Treasurer. The advisers were Mrs. Gross and Miss Hamrick.

Seniors Assisted At New Hope Center

Highlighting the year for the Campbell Hi-Y was the senior's trip in the spring. Along with the sponsoring of many projects, the seniors aided in the arranging of the seating facilities for the dedication of the New Hope Center by Mrs. Hubert Humphrey. Aiding Dan Gagich, President, were Mike Boyd, Vice President; Burt Preston, Secretary; Jim Wagner, Treasurer; Tom Bowers, Chaplain; and Mr. Victor Campbell, Adviser. As shown at upper left, members always had time for relaxing after a meeting or activity.

Reid Black, Dan Gagich, Burt Preston, Brant Dinkin, Ken Osbun, Rick Miller, Brent Baker, Gary Orlow, Randy Madson.

Underclassmen

Woerth Headed Energetic Class of 1969

Students Worked Cooperatively

Classes, like people, have ideals. It is interesting to review the accomplishments that stemmed from the ideals of the Class of 1969.

The Junior Class can take pride in the list of achievements to which many members of the class have contributed. The class worked continually toward the betterment of itself and the school, as exemplified by their play entitled You Can't Take It With You.

The play, which was presented November 24th and 25th, was an impressive affair that drew many praises from students and teachers alike. The stage setting added to the success of the production and is still in the minds of many who saw it.

Christmas trees were sold on Mehock Field from early December until Christmas. Many students spent time after school selling the trees. The project netted a large sum of money for the class.

President Greg Woerth was a successful leader in every way. He and the other officers had a very busy year with all their projects.

The Class of 1969 can look back on its two years at Malabar with the feeling of success. They were years of work, achievement, and reward.

Sophomores Drawn Into Many Activities

Seated: Pat Nelson, Beth Bogner, Brad Smith, Lesley Williams, Mark Suman, Lonnie Holmes. Standing: Barb Hopp, Kathi Colby, Phyllis Wareham, Jeannie Worley, Chely Fockler, Kristy Ammeter, Lynn Ammeter, Melanie Alacca, Ellen Goldman, Marvin Sandel, Randy Derror, Chris Black, Steve Buckalew, Jay Bailet, Charles Jones.

Sophs Were Impressive

Advisers: Mr. Carlough, Miss Graves, Mr. Hailey.

"Big and Mighty" accurately describes the energetic Class of 1970.

At the head of the sophomore class was Brad Smith (above) who ably executed his presidential duties. To his persistent efforts go much credit for the success of the year.

The office of vice-president was supplied by Lesley Williams whose support strengthened the class.

Financial duties, raising initial funds and making cautious expenditures, fell to treasurer Mark Suman. Minutes were taken by Lonnie Holmes who excelled as secretary. Miss Graves, Mr. Carlough, and Mr. Hailey served the class in the capacity of faculty advisers.
